

Interviewing for Program Design Elements

What is in your course/program experience that builds trust?
What challenges do you set for your participants?
How does your program make learning fun?
What is your process for managing diversity?
What is your process for checking in with participants to see how they are doing?
How do you determine session frequency and length?
What are the benefits you see from your course/program frequency and length?
How do you evaluate your course/program?
What do you seek to learn or understand from your evaluation?	